

Who am I? | The Old Testament | #001

I married a man of Yahuwah. Before he married me, his previous wife died. She is buried in Hebron, in the land of Kena'an. My husband was very old and advanced in years. Yahuwah had blessed him in every way! The Scriptures don't say much about me, except that my husband and I married after his oldest son married a woman to be confronted from the death of his mother. I bore my husband Abraham six sons; Zimran, Yashan, Medan, Midyan, Yishbaq and Shuwah. My husband died when he was 175 years old. Who am I?

Who am I? | The Old Testament | #002

My husband is a great man with a lot on his shoulders. When him and I got married, his brother and sister didn't like the idea; especially his sister. This envy caused his brother and sister to nit-pick my husband even more. This was getting inappropriate; because of this, my husband, his brother and sister had a meeting with Yahuwah himself! After the meeting, my husband's sister became a leper; white as snow. Because of her, we had to wait seven days before we could move. Who am I?

Who am I? | The Old Testament | #003

We are two people. Our father was a very important man of our congregation. He was almost as high up as the leader. One day, we decided to do what we wanted; instead of what and when Yahuwah commanded. We each took our fire holder, put fire in it, and then we put incense on it. We brought this strange fire before Yahuwah. He fire of Yahuwah consumed us and we died before Yahuwah. After our death, Mosheh came to our father and his other two sons and his two uncles; informing them of what had happened. They were commanded t no to mourn our death, lest they die. Who are we?
