

---

Who am I? | The New Testament | #001

I was a taught one of Yahushua, I was filled with good works and kind deeds which I done. I became sick and passed away. My family washed me and lied me in the upper room. A man named Lod was also in Yapha, he sent two men to Kepha, when he arrived where I was laid, he turned toward me and said, “Rise.” I opened my eyes and there he was, Kepha was standing before me! Sitting up, he grabbed my hand, brought me to the mourning widows to present me alive.

This came to be known in Yapho, and many believed in Yahushua. Who am I?

---

Who am I? | The New Testament | #002

Boasting is my downfall! Controlling myself is sometimes very difficult and nobody is able to tame me because I am restless and evil. I even defile my own body and bring myself to shame. People have heard me bless them tremendously but they have also heard me curse them ferociously. Who Am I?

---

Who am I? | The New Testament | #003

Sometimes I’m calm which allows people to enjoy me but sometimes I can be a bit choppy and this makes people a bit uneasy. I love basking in the sun but my favorite thing is to roll around on the shore. I, also, have fun being apart of someone catching fish. But the most important experience I’ve ever had was when a special man walked on me!

Who am I?

ANSWER GUIDE

-Who am I? | The New Testament | #001: (Acts 9:36-43) Tabitha/Dorkas

-Who am I? | The New Testament | #002: (Yaakov/James 3) The Tongue

-Who am I? | The New Testament | #003: (Yochanan/John 6) Lake Kinneret (Lake Tiberias –the Sea of Galilee)