

Who am I? | The Old Testament | #004

I was a great prophet. A book of the Old Testament was named after me. The King would not listen to me though. In result, Yahuwah took the nation from his hands.

Yahuwah showed me in a night vision two baskets of figs set before the Hekel of Yahuwah after Nebukadnetsar sovereign of Babel had exciled YekonYahu, son of Yehoyaqim, sovereign of Yehudah from Yerushalayim to Babel.

One basket had good figs, like the figs that are first ripe. The other basket had very spoilt figs, which could not be eaten, they were so spoilt.

And Yahuwah said to me, “What do you see?” I said, “Figs, the good figs, very good. And the spoilt, very spoilt, which cannot be eaten, they are so spoilt.”

Again, the word of Yahuwah came to me saying, “Like these good figs, so do I acknowledge the exiles of Yehudah, whom, I have set out of this place for their own good, into the land of the Chaldeans. And I have set my eyes on them for good, and shall bring them and not pull them down., and shall not plant them and not pluck them up. And I shall give them a heart to know Me, that I am Yahuwah. And they shall be My people and I shall be their Elohim, for they shall turn back to Me with all their heart. And as the spoilt figs that could not be eaten because they are so spoilt,” for thus says Yahuwah, “so do I give up TsidqiYahu, the sovereign of Yehudah and all in this land. Yerushalayim and those dwelling in Mitsrayim, I shall make them a horror to the reigns of the earth, for evil, to be a reproach and a byword, a mockery and a curse, in all the places to which I drive them. And I shall send the sword, the scarcity of food, and the pestilence among them, till they are consumed from the land that I gave to them and their fathers.” Who am I?
